Canasil Director Gary Nordin resigns and will act as Advisor to the Board

Vancouver, September 15, 2015 - Canasil Resources Inc. ("Canasil" or the "Company", TSX-V: CLZ, DB Frankfurt 3CC) announces that Gary Nordin has resigned from his position as a Director effective September 15, 2015. Mr. Nordin has agreed to act as an Advisor to the Board and remains a significant shareholder of Canasil. Gary has been an important member of the Board and has made valuable contributions to the Company over the past 16 years, particularly his technical input in the selection and advancement of the Company's portfolio of exploration projects. Canasil's management and Directors wish to thank Mr. Nordin for his many years of service, and to wish him all the best in his future endeavours.

About Canasil:

Canasil is a Canadian mineral exploration company with a strong portfolio of 100% owned silver-gold-copper-lead-zinc projects in Durango and Zacatecas States, Mexico, and in British Columbia, Canada. The Company's directors and management include industry professionals with a track record of identifying and advancing successful mineral exploration projects through to discovery and further development. The Company is actively engaged in the exploration of its mineral properties, and maintains an operating subsidiary in Durango, Mexico, with full time geological and support staff for its operations in Mexico.
